15 Phony Checks Cashed for $1,467

Drawn On Company Ex-Name

All Cashed In City Bars

Police today are on the trail of a rubber check artist who has stretched his "take" to $1,467.

All of the checks were made out for $97.82 and all of them were cashed on Friday and Saturday of last week in local bars.

The checks carried a "Mansfield Brass Foundry, Inc." imprint. There is no such firm in the city. Four years ago the company became the Mansfield Brass and Aluminum corporation.

Glenn L. Bierly, president of Mansfield Brass and Aluminum, called the check passing "a complete phony." He said the checks were obviously printed outside the company and that they were drawn on the Citizens National bank where no company account is held. He said the checks bore no name used by anyone connected with the company at present.

Bierly declared that he was "astounded at the ease with which checks can be cashed."

'FAKE PRINTING'

The checks, printed to resemble the company's payroll checks, were signed "R. A. Roesch." Bierly said that was the maiden name of his secretary, Mrs. Ruth Southworth, and that the name hasn't been used since the company's name was changed in 1945.

So far, police said, only varying descriptions of the check passers have been obtained.

"While it is embarrassing to us," Bierly continued, "it should serve as a warning that extreme care should be taken in cashing checks. Anyone familiar with our checks over the past three years certainly should have caught the mistake before 15 checks had been passed."

OK More Aid For Jobless

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Appropriations committee, noting an upward trend in jobless figures, today approved $135,000,000 for the bureau of employment security for the year starting July 1.

And if that turns out to be too little for the next fiscal year, the committee said, it will raise the limit to $157,500,000.

But the group said that, despite the rise in the number of jobless, employment prospects "appear relatively good" for the coming months.

The unemployment fund is one of the large items in a $2,211,794,085 money bill the committee sent to the House floor for debate tomorrow.

Fund Shortage Hit In Report

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The state auditor today accused the principal of Warren's East junior high school of being unable to account for $3,397 in school activity funds.

Total sum which Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson wants to recover from Principal Raymond W. Glass is $3,871.

The findings are listed in an examination report on the Warren city school district covering the period Oct. 2, 1943, to Aug. 12, 1948.

British Girl Claims U. S. Like Movies

UNION CITY, N. J.—(U.P.)—A 24-year-old British factory girl, who arrived today to exchange jobs for a month with an American, said the United States looked to her "just like it does in the movies."

The girl, Ada Fishburn, daughter of a coal miner, had never been outside the village of Pagebank in northern England before.

When she docked in New York last night aboard the Queen Elizabeth she found that someone had stolen her wallet with the $20 she had managed to save for the trip from her $15-a-week salary.

Senate OK Placed On Oleo Bill

Measure Now Goes to House

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The Ohio Senate revived the oleo bill, passed and sent it today to an uncertain fate in the House.

The vote last night was 18 yes to 14 no, one more than needed to pass. The measure failed to get enough votes last Wednesday. But Sen. William M. Boyd (D-Cuyahoga) asked reconsideration and the measure slid through.

A similar bill to allow manufacture and sale of colored oleo in Ohio passed the Senate two years ago but died in the House. Rural representatives predicted a similar fate this session.

It passed the Senate last session but died in the House.

Brought before the legislature by petition, the oleo bill can be placed on the November election ballot if defeated or substantially altered. That would require some 70,000 more valid signatures on petitions. About 200,000 were obtained to bring the bill before the legislature.

Boyd last Wednesday changed his yes vote to no so he would be on the prevailing side. That made him eligible to ask reconsideration last night. He voted for the measure on roll call, thus switching back to his original position.

Three others changed their votes last week. Sen. Tom W. Jones (R-Meigs) voted no. Sens. Edward Welsh (D-Montgomery) and Orval E. Whitacre (D-Stark) voted yes.

Whitacre explained his shift from last week thus: "A lot of people who can't afford butter voted for me last November. If this will help give them a cheap spread for bread, I want them to have it."

Sol Bloom Stricken

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Truman and members of Congress today mourned the death of Rep. Sol Bloom, the immigrant's son who rose from street peddler to foreign policy chief of the House.

In a telegram to Bloom's only daughter, Vera, Mr. Truman said he was "shocked and saddened" by the New York congressman's unexpected death last night at Bethesda naval hospital.

"As a member and twice chairman of the great (House) committee on foreign affairs, he was a tower of strength to his country in the most critical period of our international relations," Mr. Truman said.

Hospital authorities attributed Bloom's death to a "sudden acute heart attack." Bloom had entered the hospital Friday for a check-up and treatment for an "acute upper respiratory infection."

Chinese Premier Resigns Position

NANKING — (AP) — Premier Sun Fo, carryover from the Nationalist regime of retired Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, quit today.

His resignation opened the way for a premier more acceptable to the communists in peace talks to end China's civil war.

Push For Ballot On Manager

Group Seeks Public Support

More than 100 letters and promotional literature have gone out to Mansfielders today proposing the formation of a committee of 100 or more citizens to bring the city manager plan of government before the voters.

The letters bear the signatures of James L. Young, 139 West Fourth street, and J. C. Gorman sr., 600 Woodland road. The men are listed as temporary co-chairmen of the Citizens Committee for Council-Manager plan. The committee's address is post office box 352, Mansfield.

The letter attacks frequent changes in city administration under the present mayoral-party system. It claims the city budget "is usually prepared either in excess of actual needs or is one which includes excess funds to be used for anticipation of losses due to inefficiency and lack of experience."

Continuing the letter charges: "Our sewage system is still totally inadequate. It was only a few years ago during a severe winter that water lines were bursting all over the city because they were first laid at what was thought to be the proper distance under the surface to prevent freezing. But in some cases when the streets were graded, the water lines were only 12 inches under the surface.

"An recently it seems, if reports are true, and where there is smoke there is usually fire, the building of the reservoir, along the Clear Fork, for the city's water supply, will cost many thousands more than it should have."

When the council-manager plan was first proposed last fall, political leaders and city officials were cool to the idea.

Orders Cut In Expenses

Lausche Rules Out Higher Grants

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Ohio is going to have to get along on its present income, Gov. Frank J. Lausche reiterated today.

There won't be enough money coming in this year and next for the state to grant all the handouts asked, he said after a cabinet conference yesterday.

Here's how Lausche sees things:

Revenues in 1949-50 will total about $519,000,000. The money will be used to run the state government, pay subsidies to schools and local governments and the like.

But budgetary requirements, including welfare department increases, are $559,089,000, $40,000,000 more than anticipated income.

Budgetary requirements and major requests for handouts amount to $133,500,000 more than is in sight. That is without new taxes, which Lausche doesn't want.

"The end has been reached in that trend which since 1941 has continuously provided the state with increasing revenues for in excess of its estimates," Lausche said.

Group Urges Ban on Comics

SPRINGFIELD — (INS) — The men's class of the Calvary Baptist church in Springfield today asked that the sale of comic books be stopped to prevent juvenile delinquency.

Citing the death of seven-year-old John Arthur Smith, who hanged himself in a clothes closet while imitating comic book heroes, the men told city commissioners that children are endangered by the literature.

The commission referred the request to the police department.

The daring pilot displayed exuberant confidence as he flew across the Golden Gate at San Francisco (lower photo) 16 hours and 46 minutes later by radio messaging the CAA at Sacramento: "Tell the boys to get the feast ready."

Cites Defense Fund Waste

'Red Tape' Tangle Hit By Flemming

The post office department is so centralized in Washington that "a postmaster can hardly turn around without writing in for instructions," a member of the Hoover commission said last night in Mansfield.

In the first public address by a member of the commission, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming told 150 men of the work and objectives of the group headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

Dr. Flemming, president of Ohio Wesleyan university, spoke at a meeting of the Methodist Men's club at the First Methodist church.

The 12-man Hoover commission is submitting a series of 15 reports on the federal government with recommendations for increasing its efficiency and saving money.

The commission recommended that jobs with the postal service be awarded on merit, rather than by political appointment.

"Until we can fix responsibility for the management of government, we will have bad government in some spots," Dr. Flemming said.

AUTHORITY 'CONFUSED'

"Lines of authority are confused all over the government," Dr. Flemming said, "and when authority at the top is defused, responsible and economical government is impaired." The first report made public by the commission dealt with this problem, he said.

"The national security organization is wasting billions in defense money because there is no real boss," Dr. Flemming declared. "Up to now, congress has not delegated enough power to the defense secretary to carry out the program."

"Under the President and congress, the secretary of defense should be the boss of national defense and the heads of the army, the navy, and the air force, should act only on authority delegated through him."

Governmental red tape was described in a discussion of the procurement branch. "It was discovered," Dr. Flemming said, "That 50 per cent of the items purchased cost less than $10. The red tape in obtaining these items is so great that it costs more than $10, or the price of the item, to secure it.

PERSONNEL PROBLEM

"But unless we can solve the problem in personnel the remainder of the report is not

'Mischief' Stops Train

Signal Broken, 3 Boys Held

Throwing a stone at a Baltimore and Ohio signal which broke the lens and delayed a freight train for 15 minutes Sunday, Feb. 27, resulted in the filing of charges in juvenile court today against three 'teen-age youths.

Claude Richardson, patrolman for the railroad, apprehended the youths last Sunday firing a .22 caliber rifle while on railroad property. Richardson said the youths had also damaged relay boxes and battery wells with bullets from the rifle.

He said the green lens was knocked out by a stone, causing the light to show white since the light bulb was visible. That required stopping the freight train and making a telephone call to the control tower. The signal is 300 feet west of Sycamore street.

After apprehending the three Richardson learned they had fired the gun at water barrels, at the signal, damaging the pole, and at the padlocks on the relay boxes and battery wells.

The wells contain the batteries for operating the signals while the relay boxes build up voltage, Richardson said. Richardson described the damage as "malicious mischief" since nothing would be gained by opening the boxes.

The youths, two of whom are 16 and one 14, will answer the charges Thursday at 10 a. m. in juvenile court.

Protest Gambling, Vice

2,000 Angry 'Gals' Corner City's Mayor

GARY, Ind. — (U.P.) — Two thousand angry women disbanded early today after storming city hall and penning up Mayor Eugene Swartz and the town council until they promised to clean out widespread vice and gambling.

The women held full sway in the official chambers for four hours, jamming the hot, stuffy building until past midnight.

The demonstration started in the City Methodist church, where the women adopted a resolution demanding that Gov. Henry Schricker clean up this steel mill town if local officials failed to enforce the law.

Then the women surged two blocks up the street to the city hall, where a crowd of 500 already was in the two-story building, demanding that the nine-man council take immediate reform action.

Swartz had ordered houses of prostitution closed, but refused to take action against public gambling. When the women appeared, he promised that he also would try to halt gambling.

This didn't satisfy the angry crowd which blocked the doors of the city hall, making it impossible for Swartz or the council to leave.

Several women fainted in the sticky, crushing atmosphere, but none were hurt. For more than four hours they made speeches, asked questions, and gesticulated wildly in their demand for a general cleanup.

The citizens' drive started after the fatal shooting last Friday of Mary Cheever, 45-year-old high school teacher, when she resisted a holdup man.

The women charged that a crime wave has developed here due to the influx of criminals attracted by the city's vice conditions.

But Swartz disagreed. He blamed Gary's crime wave on slums "maintained by some of our best people." The mayor charged that these landlords "milk the property for whatever they can get out of it, and don't put anything back into it for improvement."

Makes 5,000 Mile Flight In 36 Hours

TETERBORO, N. J.—(INS)—Bill Odom, noted solo flyer, smashed all existing non-stop, long distance records for small planes today when he flashed past the Teterboro air terminal at 12:04 p. m. (EST) after 5,000 grueling miles from Honolulu. He "buzzed" the terminal before landing his plane.

Odom's plane touched ground at 12:05 p. m.—making it a flat 36 hours for his amazing flight.

The tired, but happy airman, all alone in the single-engined Beechcraft Bonanza "Waikiki Beech," took off from Honolulu at 12:05 a. m. (EST) yesterday.

Throughout the closing stages of the flight the 29-year-old pilot kept his eyes glued to the instrument panel as he conserved his dwindling gasoline supply.

Left far behind was his own record of 2,401 miles, set last January 13 in the same scarlet and silver monoplane.

In his first attempt he turned back after reaching the mainland and landed at Oakland, Calif.

The record-breaking, round-the-world flier completed the most hazardous section of his flight — from Hawaii to the west coast — in 16 hours and 46 minutes.

Tail winds over the Pacific and west coast regions aided Odom, however, before he ran into storms and snow over the Rockies.

Odom notified the civil aeronautics administration at Rock Springs, Wyo., shortly after midnight, that he had changed his flight plan because of snowstorms.

Odom headed slightly north of his original route, to fly over Scottsbluff, Neb., and Omaha, instead of passing over Cheyenne and Laramie, Wyo., because of weather conditions.

His scarlet and silver plane was greeted over San Francisco by a B-29 Superfortress, a B-17 Flying Fortress and a PBY patrol bomber, all of whom throttled down their motors to fly at the same speed as the smaller plane.

Odom's plane, the Waikiki Beech, dived from 9,000 to 5,000 feet to meet the greeter planes and to give San Francisco a glimpse of the history-making flight.

VERY TIRED

"I'm very, very tired," Odom said shortly after, as he sped across the Pacific and mountain states.

As he passed over Idaho, Odom received word from the Burley radio station that light icing conditions were prevalent in the eastern part of the state beween 13,000 and 15,000 feet.

The veteran Air Force and civilian flier said he was feeling "swell," despite his grueling flight.

He passed over Cleveland airport at 9:11 a. m. (EST) today and told the radio control tower that he expected to arrive at Bendix airport at noon.

Odom said he had washed, shaved and changed his shirt as he was flying over the sixth city at an altitude of 5,000 feet. He reported that he had about 25 gallons of gasoline left, enough to carry him to his goal.

Army Air Force flight control at Olsted field reported his plane over Youngstown at 9:38 a. m.

Odom took off early Sunday, casually attired in a grey business suit with only four quarts of water and a half-pint of orange juice as provisions.

In 1947 Odom made a round-the-world flight in 73 hours and five minutes, a solo record that still stands.

Ohioan Indicted On Murder Charge

TOWSON, Md. — (AP) — Mrs. Monette Burns, 40-year-old Athens, O., model, was indicted for murder yesterday in the fatal shooting of her estranged husband.

Pastors Sentenced

SOFIA — (AP) — The four top defendants in Bulgaria's spy trial of Protestant churchmen were sentenced today to life imprisonment.

They are Vassil Ziapkov, 48, Congregationalist minister; Yanko Ivanov, 48, Methodist; Nikola Naumov, 49, Baptist; and Georgi Chernev, 46, Pentecostal. Each was fined 1,000,000 leva, or about $3,750.

The Moscow trained prosecutor, Dimiter Georgiev, had demanded death terms for 11 other churchmen on trial with them.

All were accused of spying for the United States and Britain and of black market currency dealings. Ziapkov also was accused of treason.

LOSE CIVIL RIGHTS

The four leading defendants were sentenced additionally to loss of civil rights and confiscation of all property.

Other sentences were:

Lambri Mishkov, 41, Congregationalist, 15 years for spying, three years for spreading false rumors and a fine of 250,000 leva, or about $937.50.

Georgi Vassev, 48, Baptist minister, got the same sentence as Mishkov.

Ladin Popov, 36, Pentecostal, was acquitted on spy charges but was sentenced to five years in prison and a 4,000,000 leva fine for black marketing.

Mitko Dimitrov, 39, of the Church of Christ, got six years and eight months for spying, one year for spreading rumors and a fine of 10,000 levas.

Angel Dinev, 40, also Pentecostal, was acquitted of spying but got a year for spreading false rumors. He was fined 10,000 levas.

Alexander Zahariev, 65, Methodist minister, was acquitted of espionage but sentenced to a year in prison for spreading false rumors. He was fined 5,000 levas.

Pushes Drive for YM-YW Building

MANSFIELD NEWS-JOURNAL

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1949 TELEPHONE 7231-6 PAGE NINE

Speaker Calls For Backing

Calling for a drive for a combined YMCA-YWCA building, Rev. Russell J. Humbert, Youngstown civic leader, asked more than 150 persons assembled at the annual "Y" dinner last night to accept a "spiritual and financial responsibility for the youth of tomorrow.

He characterized the new building plan as one way of "molding this youth into useful citizenry."

The drive, being planned by both organizations for adjoining buildings, will be discussed Thursday with the Citizens' Committee On Social Survey.

Humbert presented four points for Mansfielders to consider in launching the program.

"First," he said, "we must visualize the kind of 'Y' organizations we want to build. We must bite our teeth into some difficult situations that people say can't be overcome."

The speaker said Mansfield must carry on this program no matter how remote the possibility of success may seem.

Humbert said, "We must give the utmost that we can possibly give, and we must do this because we think it is the best thing we can do."

He warned that "America stands at the point of no return and must build a Christian society or we won't have any society at all."

The way to build this society, the pastor said, is to spend this money for building character rather than for armaments.

SEEN AS PROTECTION

In urging Mansfield to get behind the program, he emphasized that "we must get into action and get over our 'spectatoritis'."

He characterized the YW-YMCA program as one which makes "our way of life so satisfactory that we won't want another."

The YMCA's newly-inducted president, A. B. Grafton, said after the dinner meeting at the Mansfield-Leland hotel that the new drive is a resurgence of the one started in 1927. He said the 1927 drive was abandoned because of the depression.

The present YMCA building on Park avenue west was erected in 1897 and is inadequate for needs of a growing industrial community the size of Mansfield, Grafton said. He pointed out that the "Y" has $39,000 in its building fund, plus other assets, such as the old structure, as a foundation for the drive.

A new site has not been selected, and architect's plans have not been completed, Grafton said.

Grafton was inducted as the "Y's" new president at the meeting and was presented with the gavel by Past President Irl L. Fisher. Toastmaster C. H. Henkel introduced the speakers.

A tableau of "Y" activities was presented under the direction of Robert Schmidt and John Fike. John Fighter was narrator.

Charges Slowdowns Are Stealing, As Rhode Island Bishop Asserted

HAVING neglected the field of unionism and labor for a long time, a few but only a few of our American clergy have bestirred themselves in the last few years. Better late than never. They were caught flatfooted, nevertheless, and only the challenge of communistic influence in this malleable and maneuverable mass of power stirred them to their duty of opportunity even then.

I see no evidence that they are laying down and enforcing the simple law of guilt and restitution, however. There are about nine or perhaps a dozen union bosses of national prominence and power that could be put on the spot by such preaching and personal counsel who have made neither public confession nor amends.

These men control about five million subjects. This is more than a third, and I would think, nearly half, of the actual, legitimate membership of all the unions just now. I realize, of course, that the big union bosses claim from thirteen million to fifteen million subjects but they are unconscionable liars and the department of labor is another. Its statistics are loaded in favor of the unions, which are brazenly treated as its clients and proteges.

It is common practice in union conventions to exaggerate memberships and pay per capita taxes on the fictitious margin above the actual membership.

Thus the politicians in control of such units contrive greater power through more delegates. The per capita tax being small, the cost of a false front may be a good investment in power So one may never know the true membership of the union movement.

The individual member who deliberately loafs on the job giving, say, 80 cents worth of effort for a dollar, probably is so cynical by this time that it never occurs to him that he is stealing 20 cents out of every dollar that he collects.

The Catholic bishop of Rhode Island, who condemned as theft the taking of money as pay for work not done while the men actually shot crap or deliverately retarded production was discussing conditions which had been observed on religious buildings.

It was a dramatic way of putting it to workmen to say they were robbing the poor-box or the collection plate, but it was correct. But the guilt is as bad if the same theft is committed in the building of a house for some individual, such as a clerk or office manager.

It makes no difference who is being robbed; the men who do this are thieves and according to the moral law they must give it back.

To a Catholic it would surely be a confessional matter. To any other man who believes that stealing is wrong and that illgotten money must be given back the situation is equally clear.

But what is a man to do who can truly say that his total wage, including the stolen part was only enough for his family's needs? He can't make restitution.

I do not suggest that crapshooting on "company time" is common, but the slowdown certainly is. The bricklayers get the worst publicity for their slowdown because it is so obvious, but in other crafts it is built into the wages.

There are many jobs in which the rate of production is controlled by the union bosses so that the individual has no choice but to steal. Or is that stealing if the individual knows that if he tries to buck the union boss and deliver an honest hour's work for an hour's pay he will be taken off the job and suspended for "un - unionlike conduct"? That gets into theology. The union boss has got his moral responsibility just the same.

Clevelander To Address 4-H Advisers

Leaders to Receive Awards at Session

A retired Cleveland banker, described as a "dispenser of homely philosophy and Scotch humor", will be the main speaker for the annual dinner today at 6:30 p. m. at the First Methodist church for 4-H club leaders and advisers.

He is David K. Stewart, who is said to mix humor, sentiment and sense with a bit o' Scotch humor.

The dinner is sponsored by the Richland County Africultural society. Gilmore Hiett will be the toastmaster. Two singing trios from Mansfield Senior high school will be on the program.

Two awards will be presented by Miss Mabel Spray, county home demonstration agent.

The first will go to Mrs. Olive Walker, Bellville, for "the outstanding contribution" she has made during her 32 years of 4-H club work Miss Spray will make the presentation on behalf of W. H. Palmer, state 4-H leader.

The other award will go to Duane Will, 19, 4-H club member and leader, as the second prize winner in the national dairy production contest sponsored by a food company. The award is a $25 U. S. Savings Bond.

County Agent C. N. McGrew said that "Tag Day" equipment would be given out at the meeting. Club members will hold a "Tag Day" Saturday throughout the county for the benefit of the Richland Rural Life center.

The dinner is one of the events scheduled during this national 4-H club week, which extends through next Sunday. The week also touches off the membership drive held during March of each year.

'HOMESICK' FOR U. S.

A letter to the News-Journal from Peter Van Harlingen, who with his son, Jon, were guests of relatives here for six months last year, tells of present conditions in Holland, his native country. Prices are still "sky-high", Van Harlingen said, but the food situation is a lot better than when he left home early in 1948, due, he said, to the Marshall plan. But he "dreams" of the United States and the life here and hopes to get back here some day. He wishes he could be back here working on the TB sanatorium. During his stay here, Van Harlingen worked for a time as a bricklayer on the building on Lucas road. He fears that it will be at least five years before he can return because there are 16,500 people on the list waiting to catch a boat for America and the quota is only 1,125 a year.

Another sure sign of spring: The baskets filled with onion sets on the sidewalks in front of stores. Onions usually are the first crop to be started out doors because they don't mind the cold. Sets will be planted just as soon as the earth is dry enough to spade or plow. Gardeners who raise their own tomato plants will be sowing the seed in boxes in the house or in hotbeds within the next two weeks. It requires seven or eight weeks for the plants to be sturdy enough to re-set in the garden the first or second week in May.

Richmond Seeks Answer to Class D Ball Problem

RICHMOND, Ind., — (AP) — The Richmond baseball club will try to find out in the next few days if there is enough local baseball interest to warrant Richmond's going back to the class D Ohio-Indiana league.

Club president Clarence Jessup said about $10,000 would have to be raised to permit Richmond to operate independently in the league. He said he would try to tie up with a major league team, but doubted he would be successful.

The league took over Richmond's franchise yesterday, along with that of the Zanesville, O., club. Zanesville said it could operate with Cleveland backing, but the league still needs Richmond to make up an even eight team loop.

The Zanesville franchise will go to the Zanesville chamber of commerce, if an eighth club enters the league by April 1.

New Wooster Coach

WOOSTER — (UP) — Philip L. Shipe, whose Defiance high school football teams won 35 and lost 11 in five seasons, today was named head football coach at the College of Wooster.

Sub Catcher Lone Player Out of Fold

TUCSON, Ariz. — (AP) — All the Cleveland Indians except Hank Ruszkowski, a spare catcher, had agreed to contracts today as the Tribe started the second week of spring training camp and prepared for the initial intersquad game tomorrow.

Club President Bill Veeck signed Joe Gordon, Gene Bearden and Johnny Berardino yesterday morning, then came to terms with Bob Lemon and Roberto Avila last night.

GORDON'S BIGGEST

About $100,000 was involved in the five contracts. Second Baseman Joe Gordon's was the big one of the lot, and The Flash called it "the best contract I ever had," adding: "I'm very well satisfied."

This season Gordon's contract is believed to include a bonus based on attendance which will enable him to earn $40,000.

Gordon hit 32 home runs and drove in 124 runs last season to lead all his teammates in these departments for the second year.

Pitcher Bob Lemon's contract, also with an attendance bonus, reportedly will net him $25,000 if the Indians draw as well as they did last season.

Bearden also got a sizable pay boost. He, too, is covered by an attendance bonus clause.

"If we have a good season, I'll make out all right," Bearden said. "Bill and I worked out an arrangement that suits me perfectly."

TAKES A CUT

Berardino, a utility infielder who hit only .190 last campaign, was one of the few Indians to take a pay cut.

Avila, 22-year-old Mexican second baseman, is a bonus player who cannot be farmed out until all major league clubs have waived on him.

Ruszkowski, still at his home in Cleveland, wants a guarantee of $5,000. Veeck has said he would not make further overtures to the catcher, and that the next move was up to Ruszkowski.

Kentucky Five Wins AP Court Poll In Waltz

NEW YORK — (AP) — Kentucky's Wildcats are national collegiate basketball champions of the 1948-49 season.

This was the conclusion of the final associated press poll, in which 161 writers and boradcasters throughout the country made their picks.

The Olympic - seasoned Kentuckians, who appear headed for one of the greatest sweeps in college cage history, won the No. 1 national spot hands down, surprising no one.

They received 136 of the 161 first place votes and wound up with a total of 1546 points that left the other teams straggling behind in this order: Oklahoma A. and M., St. Louis, Illinois, Western Kentucky, Minnesota, Bradley, San Francisco, Tulane and Bowling Green.

Lee Was First Heavy Choice

NEW YORK — (UP) — Bill Daly, manager of contender Lee Savold, confirmed today that Savold had been offered by Joe Louis' promotional outfit the first chance at a fight for the title vacated by the brown bomber.

Commissioner Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing Association disclosed the offer to Savold and said the blond battler from Paterson, N. J., turned it down because of previous tournaments.

After Savold declined, Green said, Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott was signed for the fight. Both Walcott and Charles agreed to defend the title against Savold within three months.

Former '500' Winner Hangs Self In Garage

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — L. L. (Slim) Corum, co-winner of the 1924 Indianapolis motor speedway race, was found hanged last night in the garage at the rear of his home.

Dr. Joseph H. Jewett, deputy coroner, ruled the 50-year-old retired driver committed suicide.

TOUGH ON COURT—The Cleveland Browns great offensive fullback, Marion Motley, is also some shakes as a basketball player. He played the cage sport in high school for Canton McKinley and is a member of the Browns team which will play the Mansfield All-Stars March 16 at Senior high school. All proceeds of the game will go into the Friendly House gymnasium fund.

Ashland Pumpers In Tight Win Over Mansfield, 72-66

Playing only its third time as a unit, the Mansfield all-star basketball team gave the Ashland Myers Pump cagers a rough way to go before succumbing, 72 to 66, last night on the Ashland college floor.

The Myers Pumpers, rated one of Ohio's better amateur clubs, led all the way and built up a 13-point margin in the fourth quarter. However, the Mansfield club came back to pare the advantage to four points just before the game ended. Myers stalled the last three minutes to protect its lead.

MILLER GETS 19

Score at the intermission points favored the home club, 22 to 18, 42 to 36 and 61 to 52. Bobby Miller, former Bowling Green cager, paced the winners with 19 points while Rollie Ford, the all-Richland county star, of the past two years hit 15 for the all-stars.

Tied with 13 points were Mansfield's Jimmy "Stretch" Regula and Ashland's Pete Risser. Myers Pump piled up a good bit of its margin from the foul line, hitting 18 of 21 tosses, while Mansfield made 16 of 26.

It was simply a question of experience paying off. The Ashlanders have played two years as a unit, winning 67 of 75 games. This year the Pumpers have 33 wins against four losses. The all-star club has played together in only three games but last night's loss was only their first.

The Mansfield team was collected to meet the Cleveland Browns in a benefit game March 16 at Senior high. All proceeds of the contest will go to the Friendly House gymnasium fund. Admission to the game is $2 for reserved seats and $1 for general admission.

MONEY THE GOAL

Prices for the game are higher than normal but for only one reason. The Goodfellows club, sponsors of the game, want to raise as much money as possible for the Friendly House. Tickets are on sale by Kiwanis club members and at the City News, Tawse pharmacy and Elks club.

Ollie Cline, Dick Casad, Leroy Dill and Ed Woodberry were unable to "make" last night's game but will be on hand for the Brown clash.

Business Manager Stan Kamen of the all-stars announced today that the all-stars would play one more exhibition before the Browns clash. The club will play the feature game of the Gold Medal tournament's final session.

Athletics . . .

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—(AP)—Everyone in the Philadelphia Athletics' training camp is surprised at the showing of 28-year-old Joe Astroth except Connie Mack.

"I'm not surprised," said the A's manager-president after Coach Al Simmons praised the East Alton, Ill., catching prospect as "a ball player," in which Earle Mack, Earle Brucker, Dave Keefe, Jimmy Dykes and Ira Thomas concurred.

"Scouts last year told me Astroth was the best catcher in the minor leagues," Mack said.

Cubs . . .

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Manager Charlie Grimm of the Chicago Cubs has split his squad for the opening of intra-camp games tomorrow. The biggest surprise, in his line-up of regulars is the shifting of Andy Pafko from right field to center field. Harry Walker, who came to the Cubs from the Phillies for Bill Nicholson, will take over the right garden.

★

Reds . . .

TAMPA, Fla. — (AP) — Ewell Blackwell is the big "if" of the Cincinnati Reds in their first spring training season under Manager Bucky Walters.

Little hope for improvement in the Reds' seventh-place finish of last season can be seen unless the ailing Blackwell, who reported some 15 to 20 pounds underweight, can gain a semblance of his 1947 form.

Thin and gaunt after undergoing a serious kidney operation as recently as Jan. 20, Blackwell probably won't be able to take a turn on the mound for several weeks. He's sure he'll be as good as ever.

Gould Says Braddock to 'Claim' Title; Scribe Visions Worst Fight In History

By LAWTON CARVER

NEW YORK—(INS)—Joe Gould said today that everybody can forget all this nonsense about Joe Louis and others planning to promote a title fight or a tournament to establish a successor to Louis as heavyweight champion

"Why go to all that bother?" Gould asked with a cackle that passed for a laugh. "Jim Braddock is going to claim the title on the grounds that as the champion whom Louis dethroned the title automatically reverts to him now that Louis has retired—if he has."

Gould's facetious suggestion will hardly cause widespread stopping of newspaper presses but it makes as much sense as some of the stuff going on in the wake of Louis' latest retirement.

Uncle Mike Jacobs apparently has changed his mind at least twice and now plans to come back as head of the 20th Century Sporting club in an effort to save his organization from disintegration through loss of the heavyweight title.

The tournament of champions stepped more firmly into the situation with a bona fide offer to Ezzard Charles, who appears not to have been tied up by Louis, despite the latter's statements that he will put on a Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott match for the title.

If Louis stages this bout, however, it will prove that he is as game as a promoter as he ever was as a fighter. This match conceivably could result in the worst important fight in heavyweight history.

Unless Charles and Walcott extend themselves far beyond previous efforts they will set boxing back a hundred years in a bout with each other.

A bad fight—and this one almost surely would be a bad one—would no nothing to enhance the position of the winner.

The New York commission seems to have the right idea in insisting that a new title holder be established through an elimination tournament.

This would at least serve the purpose of revealing the lesser of all the evils, instead of merely leaving it up to Charles and Walcott. Everybody knows how bad they are. In fact, one is worse than the other.

Chatlain Sinks 37 Points

Three 'Medal' Tourney Tilts Set Tonight

Ed Chatlain, the red-haired Senior high school teacher, gave basketball lessons last night.

The former Tyger and Wittenberg athletic great scored 37 points as Martin Hardware defeated Ontario Community, 62-37, in the Gold Medal basketball tournament at Johnny Appleseed. It was one of the biggest individual scores ever turned in by a Mansfield cager and will without much doubt give Chatlain the medal for most points in one game of the tournament.

IN SECOND ROUND

Three other games were played on the Appleseed floor. The Butler Boosters eliminated First Christian, 25-23; Bellville Athletic club beat Park Avenue Baptist, 34-23, and Penn Auto-Sporting Goods trimmed the Ontario Vets, 47-35. The latter two games were second round contests.

With the exception of Chatlain, individual scores were at a premium. Bobby Baker of Penn Auto collected 15 and Gerald Crawford of Ontario Community 14.

Four more second round games will be played tonight at John Simpson as the field is cut to ten teams. The opening game is likely to be one of the best as the highly-regarded Lucas Vets take on Urschel Insurance at 6:45 p. m.

REST OF SCHEDULE

Richland Beverage meets the American league variety of Mansfield Tire, Komito's clashes with Plymouth White Front and Shiloh American Legion tangles with Shelby Gumps.

Tomorrow's games are also set for Simpson, beginning at 7 p. m. Mansfield Tire B is paired with Martin Hardware, Frankie Mitsch's makes its bow against the Butler Boosters and Penn Auto-Sporting Goods faces Bellville Athletic club.

Cincy Cage Fives Defeat Outsiders

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The visiting teams "cooperated" handsomely here last night to set up another bitter basketball battle between the University of Cincinnati and Xavier.

The finals between the two local rivals will be played tomorrow night. La Salle will tangle with William and Mary in a consolation game opener.

Add Two Clubs To Cage Meet

NEW YORK — (UP) — A special playoff between New York university, St. John's of Brooklyn, and Manhattan college was being considered today to determine the eighth and final team in the national invitation basketball tournament.

The University of San Francisco and City College of New York yesterday became the latest quintets to accept bids for the annual scramble that gets underway at Madison Square Garden saturday night.

The five other teams already booked for the tournament are Kentucky, defending Champion St. Louis, western Kentucky, Utah and Bradley.

Champ Illini Lose In Finale To Michigan

CHICAGO — (AP) — Apparently Illinois' basketball team plays its best under pressure.

With the strain off, the Illini were trounced 70-53 by Michigan at Ann Arbor last night in the big nine finale.

The defeat left Illinois with a 10-2 conference record and a team scoring total of 783 points for a new conference record. The old 12-game mark was 755 by the 1943 Illini whiz kids.

NO NEW RECORD

Dike Eddleman, however, failed to realize a new individual sharp-shooting record for Illinois. He was held to 10 points to end the season with 299 for a complete 22 game schedule and seven shy of breaking Andy Phillip's all-time high of 305 in 1943.

In winning all but three of its total 22 games this season, Illinois rolled up 1,530 points, a 70 per game average.

Cream of Ohio High School Track Crop Runs for Bucks

COLUMBUS—(INS)—The cream of the crop of Ohio high school track stars will make Larry Snyder's Ohio State thinclads one of the best outfits in Buckeye annals and possibly the strongest in the Western Conference next season.

Gene Cole, former Lancaster ace, heads the list of star-studded yearlings in the Buckeye camp.

Cole set a national interscholastic record last spring in winning the quarter-mile in 48 seconds flat. He also chalked up triumphs in the 100 and 220-yard dashes to become the first triple winner in Ohio's Class "A" competition since Jesse Owens turned the trick in 1933.

Bob Bell of Worthington and Al Wood of Dayton are other top flight dash men. Bell copped the 220 and 440-yard events in the district meet and placed second among Class "B" quartermilers.

Independence's Walt Klevay is one of the most touted speedsters to enroll at the Buckeye school. Klevay won both the 100 and 220-yard Class "B" finals for the third straight year. Only five others have ever matched that feat.

Backing up Cole in the quarter mile are Paul Dimmick, Cleveland; Bill Smith, Columbus West, Dave Jones, Lakewood, and Herman Turner, Cincinnati.

Ray Hamilton, flashy halfback of last year's freshmen gridders, is another state champion in the scarlet and gray fold. Hamilton won the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds flat.

Lenny Truex of Lima Central rates high in the middle-distance events. Others who bear watching are Roger Ruetenik, Vermillion, and Dave Youmans, Plainesville.

Akron's John Holoman, Walter Drazler of Cleveland and Truex comprise the Buckeyes best candidates for the mile and two-mile runs. Truex finished a close second in the state Class A mile championship race and Holoman notched the state cross-country trophy in 1947.

Assistant Coach Charlie Beetham is not so optimistic about the frosh aspirants in the field events, but they'll do much to bolster the 1950 varsity.

John Jarvis of Marietta and Larry McCollister of Mentor led the rest of the field in the discus and shot put events. Jarvis placed in the 1947 state meet in the discus.

Springfield's Mahlon Merchant and Charles McClay, a transfer from Reynoldsburg, rank as high jump prospects. Don Reaver of Columbus is the number one pole vaulter on the freshman squad but Ralph Armstrong of Cleveland, who has vaulted 12½ feet will be a strong contender.

Bill Smith, ex-Columbus West star, will double in the broad jump and 440-yard events.

In two postal dual meets thus far this season, Ohio State's freshmen squad broke even swamping Purdue 68-43 while dropping an 85-29 decision to Michigan State.

Gene Cole came up with victories in the 60-yard dash and quartermile against both the Spartans and Boilermakers to pace the Buckeyes with 20 points.

Since Western conference rules prohibit freshman competition, time trials are run and results between schools are exchanged by mail to determine the winner.

Bob Lynch Goes on Big Bowling Spree With 742

Club League Star Sets Season Mark

The greatest bit of individual bowling of the season and possibly for several years was the product of high-scoring Bob Lynch last night.

Lynch, Mansfield's most consistent bowler, put together games of 268, 244, and 230 for a sensational 742 pin count. He was rolling with the University team in the Club league on the Colony slides.

In the memory of Art Hilborn, Colony alleys manager, it was the No. 1 score on local lanes in over ten years. Present leader of the American Bowling Congress tournament is 709 after half of tournament has been completed. Only six higher scores have been rolled in the ABC in 46 years. Top is 774 by Larry Shotwell of Covington, Ky. in 1930. Bob was all alone in the spotlight as no other Club leaguer got onto the 600 perch. Pete Linster of American Legion and Pete Mayer, Lions, had 572's for runner-up honors. Max Worthley's 563 for University was third, F. Peterson's 559 for the Schoolmasters' was fourth and Jake Hoff was fifth with a 556 for Liedenkranz. R. Booksbaum, Liederkranz had 552.

BOB LYNCH

Lynch's score led the University team to a three game sweep over the Schoolmasters. Globe Steel also dropped three to Page Dairy.

★

Three other honor roll scores were posted, two in the Commercial C league and one in the Richland A.

C leaguers were led by Bill Black jr. who turned in 211-191-225—627. Black led eighth-place Wolford's to the only sweep of the night as it took three from Tinkey Lumber.

Charlie Bauer of Mansfield Tire got the other honor roll score as he toppled 609 pins on games of 225, 203, and 181. Emmett McIntire of Urschell Insurance was close behing with 597. Elmer Myers, Pioneer Printing, had 592; J. Takos and F. Miller, Local 17, 588; and Jake Schmidt, Mansfield Tire, 573.

★

A fine 244-201-192—637 was the product of Orlie Grable in the Richland A league. Grable led Richland Recreation to a three game sweep over Wonder Bread, one of five sweeps in the six matches. League-leading Oak Park Tavern, Ohio Sport Center, Mansfield Sanitary Pottery, and Sons of Italy were the other quintets registering sweeps.

A 558 by Tony Santoro of Sons of Italy was runner-up. T. Marks of McCarrick's had 225 and 551, J. Byers of Sport Center had 225 and 550, and Glenn Yingling, Oak Park, had 543.

★

Farrell Hipp spilled 567 sticks for Saltzgaber Drilling to lead the Richland C Handicap league. Gene Rudolph, Charm Fashion, posted 520, Bob Forsythe, Schenk's, 499; Elmer Osch, of the same team, 485; A. Darling, Mansfield Screw Machine, 473; and Bill Distl, Schenk's, 464.

Donna Schuster of Farmer's Market topped Women's Variety league bowlers with a 213-159-164—536 score. Wilson Auto Sales' Arlene Peters followed closely with 534 while Mary Dintamin, National Cash Register posted 521, and Flo Handwork of the same team, fired 513. Helen Wilhelm, South Boulevards Market, had 494.

Eleventh - place Shumaker Drugs dropped league - leading Mitsch's two out of three while second place Cash Register moved to within three games of the top by sweeping a trio from South Boulevard's Market.

★

Gorman-Rupp bowlers were led by Earl Turner who posted 202-161-170-533. D. Snavely had 531, Cliff Penrose spilled 486, T. Leitenberger, 487, and Dean Hahn, 458.

★

Lead in the Mansfield Tire Women's league was taken by Emma Frontz with a 147-134-203-484. Mary McCumber's 456 was good for second place while Verda Bair had 426, Chris Au, 407 and Mildred Roof, 402

★

Ronald Bachman made some of the older fellows sit up and take notice with his fine 172-191-363 in the John Simpson junior high loop. Wayne Blayney was second with 284 while Tom Washington had 270 and Ramon Amsbaugh, 240.

May File Suit

NEW YORK — (INS) — The $5,000,000 so-called "outlaws" suit against organized baseball may be filed today, probably in the U. S district court.

Grapple Card For Saturday All Signed Up

The card was set today for Mansfield's first professional wrestling match in the past two years.

Promoter Clete Kauffman has signed six grapplers, two of the female species, for his opening wrestling venture Saturday night at the Mansfield armory. Several of the sextet are veterans before local followers of the cauliflower trade.

Whitey Whittler, he of the waxed mustache, will bring all his villainy against Larry Kasaboski, Renfro, Ontario athlete, in the one-hour main go. Both have appeared here several times in the past. Kasaboski is one of the mat business's better looking specimens.

Violet Viann, St. Louis, and Dot Dotson. Des Moines, handle the "weaker sex" portion of the show in a 45-minute limit semi-final. The gals are experts at hair-pulling and other assorted bits of mat mayhem.

Each of the top bouts will be a two-of-three falls affair.

Leading off the show, Stacy Hall, the Columbus cop, will tangle with Pancho Valentino, Mexico City. Their bout is listed for one fall with a thirty-minute time limit.

One-Two Cage Punch Looks Good

By FRITZ HOWELL
(Ohio AP Sports Editor.)

COLUMBUS—Butler county is in there again, swinging its famed one-two punch—Middletown and Hamilton—each aimed at Ohio's Class A high school cage title. And don't be surprised if one of 'em makes it.

Hamilton has won the big crown only once, in 1938, but that club is still remembered as the best ever to climb the Buckeye heights. The mighty Middies did it in 1944, 1946 and 1947, under three different coaches, and missed by only a game in 1945 when they lost to Bellevue in the finals.

The two "biggies" failed to last the route last year, but Hamilton Catholic picked up the Butler county torch and carrier it to the finals before succumbing to Findlay's terrific Trojans.

This year the Middies and the Big Blue are bidding again—in spades. Hamilton knocked Cincinnati Walnut Hills, one of last year's 16 regionalists, out of the running with a 42-33 setback last night, and Middletown rolled to an impressive 48-30 conquest over Dayton Chaminade in district play.

That gave Hamilton 19 wins in 20 games, and Middletown 17 in 20, two of the latter's losses being to the Big Blue.

Middletown has a chore Friday as it meets Dayton Stivers, a nine-time winner of the big championship, in the district semi-finals at Dayton. Stivers has won 14 of 18.

STILL UNDEFEATED

Akron South, one of the few unbeaten teams left in the big race, won its 15th last night by 62-45 over Kent Roosevelt In another headline Class A clash Youngstown-Chaney, winner of 18 of 20, was defeated 45-47 by Youngstown South (15-6).

Hubbard hit the end of the trail by bowing 20-40 to Campbell Memorial, and probably was glad of it. It was Hubbard's 19th straight defeat in a winless season.

Brinkerhoff Five Wins 8th Straight In Grade League

Brinkerhoff closed its Southern grade school league with an undefeated record yesterday as it walloped Carpenter 19-10. Brinkerhoff took eight straight games to win the title for the second straight year.

Woodland defeated Prospect, 17-13, in the other game. Reserve games went to Prospect, 17-4, and to Brinkerhoff, 24-2

Action was limited Monday as most of the teams rested up from last week's sectional affairs. In Class B, at Canesville, Conesville roared to its 23rd straight conquest, defeating Community 52-40, in the delayed sectional finals. New Concord, 43-40 winner over Roscie, goes with Conesville to the Marietta district this week

Four top-flight teams reached the semi-finals of the Athens Class B district at Athens as New Lexington (22-1), Racine (18-3), Jackson Trimble (21-5) and Junction City (26-1) moved on, setting the stage for some classic scraps in the semi-finals and payoff games.

Fourteen teams which have accounted for 29 of the Class A championships decided since 1909 are still in the running. One of them, Plain City which won in 1912, is now in Class B. Of the 26 Class B tities decided since 1923, when the minor loops started, only four are left to try for a second.

The Class B ex-champs are Sandusky St. Marys (1936), North Canton (1939), Akron Ellet (1944) and Eaton, the defending king.

Former champs still in the Class A running are: Dayton Stivers (1916-19-20-21-24-25-28-29-30, Newark (1936-38-43), Middletown (1944-46-47), Portsmouth (1931), Akron West (1932) Dayton Roosevelt (1934), New Philadelphia (1940), Martins Ferry (1941), Bellevue (1945), Findlay (1912-48, Mansfield (1909), Delaware (1913-15), Marietta (1914).

Mack Will Keep Athletic Bossing In Same Family

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA. — (UP) — There'll be a new regime among the Philadelphia athletics this season, but it'll be run by the same family—the Mack family that is.

Connie Mack, 86-year-old manager of the A's, has said he will rely more heavily upon the assistance of his 57-year-old son, Earle, who is assistant manager. "Make no mistake, though," added the older Mack, 'I'll' remain the manager."

Connie said he would "sit on the bench and keep score, but during the game I won't say a word." He called in Earle from the coaching lines last spring to sit beside him on the bench

Informed of his father's declaration, Earle dismissed it simply with: "Dad's still boss."

Even Boss Man Pays For Ducats

SEATTLE — (AP) — The University of Washington athletic director, whose bid brought the NCAA basketball tourney to Seattle, will have to pay for his seat at the one-night title classic, March 26.

The director, Harvy Cassill, disclosed today he was shelling out $3.50 for a seat, just like John Q Fan. The 12,000 seats in Edmundson Pavilion have been sold out for three weeks.

Ex-Big Leaguer Fights For Life

CHICAGO — (UP) — Bill Cissell, former Chicago White Sox shortstop, fought for his life in an oxygen tent today.

Mercy hospital attendants said that Cissell, 45, was in serious condition after suffering a heart attack. He had the attack after being completely cured of a nerve condition in both legs which prevented him from walking.

You can put oil heat in a coal furnace.

NOW you can put in clean automatic oil heat!

You don't need to put up with old-fashioned, dusty, laborious heat a week longer! Modern, automatic oil heat is ready for your home right now. Check these facts about oil heat today.

OIL HEAT SAVES SO MUCH WORK

No more back-breaking drudgery. No more shoveling, shivering and swearing. Once you switch to automatic OIL heat, you don't do a thing but set the thermostat, relax, enjoy more time for hobbies, entertaining, or just plain loafing.

OIL HEAT'S SO CLEAN

No more cellar dust to dirty up the house. Because a properly adjusted oil burner provides such clean, odorless heat, your old "furnace room" becomes a place for living instead of slaving.

OIL HEAT'S SO HEALTHFUL

"See-saw" temperatures that bring on sniffling colds are a thing of the past. Floors are always comfortably warm for the children—no chilling or over-heating of rooms when heat is automatically regulated. There is no safer fuel than oil.

OIL HEAT IS ECONOMICAL, AND THE COST IS DOWN

Oil heat compares favorably in cost with non-automatic fuels in most Ohio communities. And in the face of a plentiful new supply, the price of oil has already dropped.

NEW, ECONOMICAL BURNERS ARE AVAILABLE FOR OLD HOMES, OR NEW

Whether you want to convert an old furnace, install a complete new one, or use a space heater, there are better, more economical new models for you to choose from today than ever before.

THERE IS PLENTY OF OIL

By investing billions of dollars in new wells, refineries and other equipment, the oil industry has met today's demand and is preparing for tomorrow's. We have plenty of high-grade Sohio-Heat furnace oil especially refined for home heating . . . ready for you the minute you install oil heat. . . and a contract that says your supply is assured!

SERVICE IS TOP NOTCH

No risk of running out of fuel when Sohio serves you. Modern trucks—"pipelines-on-wheels"—make prompt delivery on call. And in most localities, delivery is completely automatic, so you don't even "order". . . nor do you need to be at home when deliveries are made.

Here's how to get started...

Call your nearest Sohio office or your favorite burner dealer. Or send for this free booklet. It tells you about costs . . . types of burners . . . complete information about modern, automatic oil heat.

Towering Mikan Sets Two More Scoring Marks

NEW YORK — (UP)— George Mikan, towering Minneapolis Laker center, continued to rewrite the basketball association of America record book today as he posted new all-time league marks for successful field goals and free throws.

Mikan broke Joe Fulks' all-time BAA individual scoring record for a single season two weeks ago and all his latest feats erased records held by the Philadelphia Warrior Star.

Including games played Sunday, Mikan had made 502 field goals, breaking the mark of 475 set by Fulks in 1946-47, and his 466 free throws broke the previous high of 439 sunk by Fulks two years ago.

Mikan led the individual scoring parade with 1,470 points, and also had the best average per game, 28.3 points.

Fulks was second in point-making with 1,367 and Max Zaslofsky of the Chicago Stags, last season's individual scoring champion, was third with 1,058

Dillard Smashes High Hurdle Mark

MONTREAL — (AP) — Harrison Dillard, United States Olympic star, yesterday broke the Canadian indoor record in winning the 50-yard high hurdles in the Dominion indoor track and field championships.

Dillard set new marks in both his heat and the final, taking the heat in 6.4 and the final in 6.3 against the Canadian open record of 6.5 and meet record of 6.7.

Lou Boudreau's 'Lucky Manager'

NEW YORK — Lou Boudreau, 1948's player of the year, is not quite ready for a mastermind laurel, according to Hy Turkin, New York sports writer who made a special study of the Cleveland manager's record of last year for Varsity Magazine.

In the current issue of Varsity, Turkin analyzes the many managerial moves made by Boudreau during the heat of last year's American League dogfight and suggests an appropriate nickname for the doughty shortstop would be "Lucky Lou."

Pump, Motor Contracts Let

Two contracts for work at the Clear Fork pumping station were awarded to the Dravo Corporation, Cleveland, yesterday.

A contract for pumps and motors to draw water from the reservoir to the filter plant was awarded the Cleveland firm on its bid of $7,593. Contract for the motor control center was awarded on the Dravo bid of $2,-916.

Both bids were considerably lower than the engineer's estimate of the costs of the projects. The pump and motor contract was $707 less than the engineer's estimate, and the meter control center was $1,684 under the estimate.

The three, Robert H. Milbert, 23, Martins Ferry; Clifford Wade, 25, of Zanesville; and William Porter, 21, of Cleveland, were apprehended in Sandusky.

Milbert, serving a one-to-seven-year term for grand larceny from Franklin county, was arrested by Sandusky police shortly after midnight Sunday. Wade, sentenced to one to 15 years for burglary and larceny, was captured early Monday after hitch-hiking a ride in a truck leaving Sandusky.

Porter, serving a 10-to-25 year sentence for robbery, was arrested by police shortly after dawn Monday.

Wade was received at the reformatory on Dec. 12, 1945; Milbert on Feb. 12, 1947; and Porter on July 3, 1947.

Amended
Regulation "W" has now been amended, permitting longer terms on the purchase of late model cars. This change will mean lower monthly payments when paying on a car out of income. We think now is the logical time to purchase a car while prices are down and payments are made easier. Our policy is to continue to sell better cars at prices below the prevailing market We are able to do that because of our low overhead and volume business. We are sure you will save considerably by seeing us before making a purchase.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Library Activity Shows Increase

Adult Book Borrowers Prefer Fiction

Adults prefer fiction, but non-fiction books are more popular with the young readers who visit the Mansfield Public library.

That's what the library's annual report shows.

Adult readers borrowed 32,635 fiction books and 27,743 volumes of non-fiction at the main library last year, Librarian Lois MacKellar reported.

However, in the juvenile field, non-fiction circulation was 26,671 and fiction circulation only 18,399.

In elementary schools non-fiction circulation was almost four times as great as fiction circulation. Non-fiction circulation was 23,054; fiction 6,783.

Non-fiction circulation also led in bookmobile figures with 10,981 compared with 10,437 for fiction books.

The library reported an increase in circulation, in total number of patrons registered, and in number of library books during the year. Expenditures for 1948 also showed an increase over 1947.

Total increase in circulation was 15,617 for a total circulation of 258,396 in the main library, city branches and stations, and county branches, stations, and bookmobile stops.

PATRONS SHOW GAIN

The number of patrons registered increased approximately 2,000 with 19,583 registered in 1948.

A total of 4,250 books was added during the year to bring the number of books in the library to 85,648.

Expenditures for 1948 were $54,454, an increase of $14,671 over the 1947 figure.

A breakdown of the circulation figures shows the greatest circulation in the main library with a total of 105,448. the greatest increase in circulation came in county branches, stations, and bookmobile trips with an increase of 5,980 over 1947.

All of the circulation gain in the main library came in the juvenile department. The Newman branch library also showed a substantial increase in juvenile circulation.

The increase in number of patrons registered was due largely to the large number of persons registering in the county bookmobile, according to Miss MacKellar.

ASSISTANTS NAMED

During 1948 several part-time members of the clerical staff of the main library were replaced by two full-time assistants and Mrs. Russell Cline was appointed librarian at Newman school.

Mrs. Lois Pennell, county librarian, reported the bookmobile now visits 21 schools once every two weeks, three schools once very four weeks, and makes regular stops at Butler, Shiloh and Olivesburg.

Before the bookmobile was put into service last June only six schools received regular book truck service.

During the period from June 15 through Dec. 16, 1948, the bookmobile traveled 3,105 miles, made 216 scheduled stops and 17 trips to branches, and had a circulation of 17,658 books. Cost of operation for this period was $137.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food In a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Missouri River Flood Waters Slash Across Five-State Area

Fishermen Saved In Ice Breakup

Observers Wary Of New Floods

The swollen Missouri river slashed a destructive path through five states today in its annual spring race to the Mississippi and the sea.

Ralph Aldrich, federal river observer, warned of new floods between Lexington Mo., and the mouth of the Grand river. And in Omaha, army engineers said the "worst floods are yet to come."

The big stream boiled turbulently as it rolled along with its yellow burden of topsoil torn from the western ranges as the big snowdrifts of January and February melted in the warm spring sun.

The latest regional weather bureau advisory predicted the "big muddy" would overflow south of here, spreading water one to two feet deep over lowlands.

The Kansas City reading early today was 20.2 feet, only 1.8 feet below flood.

Tributaries were spilling more water constantly into the Missouri. Already, tributary streams in Iowa had claimed two lives.

Capt. W. M. Koenig flew over the flood-stricken areas and later announced at Omaha that the extensive damage already done was "only the beginning."

"If we have a few days of 60-degree weather we'll see nothing but water," he said.

Altogether, the river and its tributaries had spread over 188,170 acres of bottomland in North Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas.

Ninety-four fishermen were rescued or saved themselves yesterday and last night from ice flows in Lake Michigan and Lake Superior after they were caught on the shore ice as it broke up.

Four of the men spent nine hours adrift off Washington Island, Wis., until a coast guard boat picked them up and took them to the mainland.

Sixty fishermen scrambled to safety when the giant ice field on which they were trapped in Green Bay, an inlet of Lake Michigan, drifted back to shore for a few moments. Coast Guard and Private vessels rescued 30 others caught when a floe broke loose and moved into open water in Keweenaw bay on Lake Superior.

worth the paper it is written on," Dr. Flemming said.

"We must have top men to carry out the recommendations. We just can't afford to allow the duties of government to be discharged by second rate people," he said. "We now have thousands of extremely able people in government and we must hold those and obtain more."

The extent to which the recommendations of the commission are carried out depends largely upon the citizens of this country, Dr. Flemming said, but he added he believed "a good many will be put into effect."

County Buys Dump Truck

A heavy dump truck was delivered to the county engineering department today. It was purchased by resolution of the county commissioners for $4,411 from G. L. Rogers. The purchase was made by asking quotations and will be paid for out of the automobile license and gasoline tax funds.

Commissioners re-hired Floyd Stump, of 489 Woodland road as the county bee inspector at $10 per day and $5 per half-day for days worked. He will be allowed five cents per mile for travel.

They authorized cleanout of a ditch on the property of Charles E. Schrack, of Monroe township, at an estimated cost of $300 Schrack will pay $200, the county $50 as its share because of bridge construction, and $40 for moving equipment, while a neighboring farmer will pay $10 of the cost.

Ashland Council Requests Frequent City Water Tests

ASHLAND — Frequent tests of Ashland city water by the city-county health department are to be requested by Mayor Louis E. Mansfield and city council to insure against an outbreak of illness such as plagued Loudonville last month, it was decided at last night's council meeting.

Mayor Mansfield suggested the measure to provide a double-check of city water at distribution points. Checks already are made by state department of health inspectors.

At present the whole burden of preventing contamination in the lines rests on the city chemist, Donald Copeland, the mayor pointed out. Such assistance by the city health department would spread the responsibility and further insure against contamination, Mayor Mansfield explained.

The mayor announced to council approval of the city waterworks improvement programs plans by the state department of health. With this approval, received Monday, the city now can go ahead with letting bids or the actual construction in the near future. The $350,000 improvement program is planned not only to improve service but to provide for the rapidly expanding population of the city.

Council passed an ordinance on second reading limiting parking to one side of seven Ashland streets as a means of relieving traffic congestion. A $25 fine is provided for violations.

Ashland Transit Lines, Inc., city bus service, was granted permission to extend one of its runs to the city limits on Troy street. The bus company also has applied for a public utility license to extend this line some distance beyond the city limits.

Farm Folk Meet With Lawmakers

The third in a series of seven farmer-legislature get-togethers was held today at Columbus, with more than 100 grass roots delegates button-holing their representatives.

The five score farmers, guests of the Ohio Farm Bureau, were from the counties of Ashland, Crawford, Cuyahoga, Erie, Huron, Lorain, Marion, Medina, Morrow, Richland, Summit and Wayne.

The last four meetings are scheduled to be completed in the next two weeks, with a total of 700 farmers having been guests at Columbus.

Police Probe Flurry of Burglaries

Report 10 Break-Ins During Past Week

Police today are investigating a flurry of six cases of breaking and entering reported in the city over the week end and yesterday.

Ten homes and businesses in Mansfield have been broken into since March 1, but little property has been reported missing.

Herman B. Yeargin, 888 Millsboro road, reported to police that he shot at a man after he found evidence that his house had been burglarized. Police reported when they investigated they found muddy tracks in the kitchen and bedroom of Yeargin's home, substantiating the report.

Yeargin said he fired a shotgun blast at a man who ran when Yeargin went outside after finding his home had been entered.

Nothing was reported missing at Yeargin's home.

Mrs. Kenneth Messmore, 33 Glenwood boulevard, reported to police that someone entered her home Sunday while she was away. Entrance was gained by breaking a basement window. She believes her dog frightened the burglar. He left by a side or rear door, and nothing was reported missing.

Mrs. James Walker, 24 Bartley avenue, reported yesterday that when she returned from a three-day trip she found someone had entered her home.

Entrance had been gained by cutting a small hole in a rear porch door screen, and then prying open the kitchen window. Several drawers were ransacked but nothing was reported missing.

An attempt to enter the Home Hardware company, 137 Marion avenue, was reported to police yesterday.

A basement window on the south side of the building had been broken and an inner door pried on, but the prowler failed to gain entrance, police said.

At 11:30 p.m. yesterday police discovered an opened window on the west side of the Gulf service station, West Fourth street and Washington avenue. Officers said tracks were found under the window.

Flames Damage Car, Shed In City

Two "slight damage" fires were answered by Mansfield firemen late Monday and early today.

At 10:15 p. m. yesterday, No. 5 station firemen extinguished a fire in a car owned by John Watt, Mansfield, R. D. 3. The car, firemen said, had caught fire from a short in the wiring at Lexington and Cline avenues.

Central and No. 2 stations went to the home of E. A. Elliott, 621 Johns avenue, where a shed in the back yard was on fire. Firemen said damage was slight.

Court Rules On Order By FCC

WASHINGTON — The court of appeals yesterday upheld an order of the Federal Communications commission authorizing that one of three possible FM stations in Mansfield be awarded to Richland, Inc.

City Starts Repairing Streets

Takes Advantage Of Good Weather

With a break in the weather, the Mansfield street department today began the task of repairing the city's streets that have received punishing blows from freezing and thawing during the winter.

E. W. Davis, street, superintendent, said two crews are patching the downtown section streets with asphalt today. They will move to the Second and Fifth wards when the downtown area is completed and spend several days in each section as long as the weather is good.

Two other crews are busy filling in the dig-ups that were made during the winter to repair water or other underground lines that had broken or needed repair.

Mansfield's dirt streets are in for extensive repairs this spring, Davis said. He said the department has 6,000 tons of material stockpiled for this work.

"Some of the dirt streets are breaking up," Davis said, "but we have sufficient material to maintain them."

The city has 125,000 gallons of oil stockpiled for use on the dirt streets this year, the street superintendent said.

Twelve carloads of limestone and supplies of gravel and slag are included in the materials obtained for the maintenance of the streets.

Filibuster Beats Dems

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Senate Democratic leaders conceded privately today that their attempt to write filibuster curbs into Senate rules has failed.

With an anxious eye on the calendar, they were looking for a graceful way out of the filibuster fight in hopes of salvaging other features of President Truman's legislative program.

Administration strategists were particularly concerned about the possibility that the filibuster row might interfere with legislation to extend rent controls and the foreign aid program. Both are slated to expire in a few weeks.

Unless the Senate drops the filibuster wrangling and extends the rent law by March 31, some senators feel that controls can never be restored.

For more than a week, southern Democrats have waged a bitter fight against the administration's attempt to bring up a proposed change in Senate rules. That change would permit the Senate to limit debate on any motion by a two-thirds vote.

Steel Lack Hits Home Building

Martin Plant Halts House Construction

Shortage of steel for private home construction has forced a halt in the building of steel and frame residences by the Martin Steel Products company of Mansfield

The announcement was made today by Carl Oberlin, president of the company, who said the firm has received "about one per cent of what we asked for" in the government's steel allocation program for residences.

"Material just isn't available now, but maybe we'll get back into the building at a later date when steel loosens up," Oberlin added.

Oberlin said the output of other products manufactured by the company has been "considerably better" and it would not be necessary to close the plant or lay off workers.

"It's a mass production proposition on the houses. We started it on a primarily experimental basis," he said.

The company, which manufactured pre-fabricated steel farm buildings, has built 13 homes in Lincoln Fields just outside the city off Ashland road

Oberlin, who claims that upkeep is lower on the steel homes, said such structures "can be sold at $8,500 and still make money."

Communist Leaders Admit Disloyalty

NOW THAT top leaders of the Communist party in the United States have openly proclaimed allegiance to Russia—even in the event of war—only the most gullible of Americans have excuse for misunderstanding the purposes of those who direct the communist movement in this country.

When two such highly placed spokesmen for the Communist party as William Z. Foster, chairman, and Eugene Dennis, secretary, announce that the loyalty of American communists is to Russia and that they would support that country if war should develop, there can no longer be doubt as to the real intent of efforts to build up as strong a force as possible in the United States to carry out the orders of Moscow.

Remembering that Foster and Dennis are among the communists under indictment in New York, charged with conspiracy to organize the Communist party to advocate the forcible overthrow and destruction of this government, their recent avowals seem consistent with past performance.

There has been much discussion as to whether or not the Communist party should be outlawed in this country, and this may continue as an issue, but there should no longer be any question as to the advisability of disattaching communists from faculty positions in schools and colleges, positions in government, and jobs in which they could commit acts of sabotage if party interests require.

As viewed by the New York Times: "We are no longer called upon to think of communists as domestic reformers. They have shaken off such disguises. They speak from now on purely and simply in the interests of a foreign power, purely and simply against the interests of their own country, when there is a conflict, military or otherwise, with that foreign power."

Press of the World Reviving

A SURVEY made during the past two years and recently presented to the United Nations in Paris by UNESCO, the Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, takes an optimistic view of the state of health of the press of the world.

Twenty-nine countries whose printing plants were laid waste and printers and journalists dispersed during the war are reported to be rebuilding press establishments. Journalists are being trained and facilities for obtaining and transmitting news are being perfected.

In some of the countries studied the great problem is the shortage of presses and other equipment; a few need more newsprint, and others are short of trained and experienced people. Yet great advances have been made, according to the survey.

The coming to life of newspapers and magazines is a vitally important aspect of post-war return to normal. A healthy press is necessary to a well-informed public. More important than the physical recovery of the press, however, is the spirit which it expresses. On that spirit depends, to a great extent, the future of the world.

'Daylight Saving' Bobs Up Again

WHATEVER happens to "daylight saving" hereafter seems more likely to be on a statewide basis than subject to decision by cities. In any event Mansfield will, in all probability, remain on Eastern standard time through this summer as council has thus far shown no inclination to repeat last year's squabble over this controversial matter.

The state legislature, however, is considering two proposed constitutional amendments, one to prohibit local governments from tinkering with the time, and the other to adopt daylight saving for all of Ohio during summer months.

Just why a constitutional amendment, rather than legislative action, would be necessary is not explained, as it was the legislature that specified Eastern standard as legal time in Ohio.

Here's a New Word, 'Micowex'

MICOWEX is teaching many American young men something about cold weather. Short for "Minor Cold Weather Exercise," Micowex is the name for the training for Arctic warfare now being conducted by the Navy. Special food, clothing and de-icing equipment are being tried out. The Navy frankly says they have not yet proved as satisfactory as it is hoped they will later.

But efforts at learning about weather are all to the good. The lessons of Micowex may help not only in preparing for deliberate excursions into areas of severe cold, but also in dealing with the emergencies created by unusual weather conditions which upset the normal life of an area.

It appears that the Pyramid club racket originated in California—probably on one of those cold nights when time was hanging heavily on someone who was on the lookout for easy money.

What Are We Waiting For?

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Valuable Service Performed By Hoover

WHEN the final account is made of the long and useful life of Herbert Hoover, two periods will shine out more than all the rest. The first will be the two years after the first World War, when his name was a household word and his popularity outshone that of any figure of the time.

The second will be now, 30 years later, as he completes the great report of his Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government.

He has done important things between the two periods. His brave but lost struggle in the White House against an economic hurricane and the malice of his enemies has never been properly appreciated.

His years during the Roosevelt era were useful, too, but official vindictiveness shut in his face the doors of public service. He did not wait in vain, however, and the more generous Truman has enabled him to use his talents to the great advantage of his country.

Polls of public opinion show his popularity to be very high. At long last, the public is making amends for long neglect and injustice.

The Hoover Commission's report will be completed and made public on March 13th. From then on, it is up to Congress, the President and public opinion to make use of its invaluable suggestions for improvement in government and relief from the burden of public expeditures.

The great impact of the findings of the Hoover Commission will slowly make itself felt. For it has the facts and unanswerable logic behind it.

There have been appearing in the daily press for the past two weeks summaries of the findings and recommendations of the commission on various specific subjects. There are 20-odd reports of this kind.

They make important but not very exciting reading, because a summary of recommendations is never sufficiently spicy to make good headlines. Moreover, there has been an altogether unwarranted amount of attention given to minor recommendations such as that of increasing the President's salary.

* * *

Merit Extended Study.

The real meat of the commission's work is in the 23 basic and background reports of the "task forces." Each of these task forces were headed by a distinguished person with specialized knowledge of the specific field of interest. He was assisted by other experts and by expert advisory committees.

In the case of some of the task forces, the investigation and recommendations were done by nationally known accounting or auditing firms. For example, the report on government leading agencies was done by Price, Waterhouse and Co.

These task force reports, some of which run into thousands of pages, provide, for anyone interested in how his taxes are spent, rich and sometimes red meat. It should be the job of responsible journalists to dig into these reports and write for public consumption some of these vitally important findings. Such material is interesting, true and immensely significant.

Many people are going to be hurt by these reports — notably bureaucrats, congressmen and special interests who profit by government waste. We are already hearing wails of complaints. But omelets of economy cannot be made without eggs of incompetence.

It is futile to expect Congress to correct evil, laxness and obsolescence without plenty of prodding from the public. For Congress is part of the trouble. Civic bodies, clubs and taxpayers' associations should take up this fight. These efforts to reform government will surely run squarely into mountains of dry rot, outworn tradition and red tape.

Herbert Hoover and his colleagues have pointed the way and deserve the support of all of us.

Protect Public Interest

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — Any broad plan for reorganizing the federal government, such as that now being submitted in installments to Congress by the Hoover Commission, must be analyzed and judged in detail from the standpoint of the public interest as well as for what it does to promote efficiency and economy.

The public interest at stake is not always apparent to the average citizen, so intricate and ramifying are the operations of government.

It is easy, for instance, to overlook those bureaus and agencies created by Congress through the years to protect the consumer. How they may be affected is an important consideration in assessing reorganization plans.

One such, among many, that has performed notable service on behalf of the consumer is the food and drugs administration that grew out of the relentless campaign for pure food and drugs put on by the late Dr. Harvey M. Wiley back in the Theodore Roosevelt administration early in this century.

It has been battling against powerful private interests through the years, though the public learns little of this.

Originally this agency was in the agriculture department. A few years ago it was shifted under one of the reorganization plans of the Franklin D. Roosevelt regime to the federal security agency, a move that has proved to be helpful.

* * *

Protecting Consumers.

NOW the Hoover Commission is recommending, in its report to Congress on reorganization of the agriculture department, that its functions relating to food products be transferred back to that department while those relating to drugs and other products be kept in FSA under a reorganized drug bureau to be administered by the public health service.

Transfer of food regulatory functions to the agriculture department is not only contrary to the best interests of the public, but it would promote neither efficiency nor economy.

It would require a duplication of field personnel and laboratory equipment, as was pointed out in a dissent by two Hoover commission members — James K. Pollock and James H. Rowe, jr.

The Hoover commission's recommendations of its task force on the agriculture department for transfer of the whole food and drug administration back to agriculture and the medical services committee's proposal that it be continued as part of a reorganized public health service.

If transferred back to agriculture, food regulation would be under direction of a department which, because it deals entirely with agriculture, is much more susceptible to pressures from agricultural organizations whose interests often conflict with those of the consumer.

Such pressures are not similarly persuasive with FSA. The Hoover Commission itself clearly stated the difference of objective, saying:

"Voluntary standards for grading fruits, vegetables, and other agricultural products to facilitate trade transactions are extended by the department (agriculture) through educational processes to the consumer, and yet are at variance with standards for foods developed for consumer protection by the federal security agency."

In short, the objective in one instance is "to facilitate trade transactions"; in the other, "consumer protection."

President Truman will have the final decision on such proposals for transfers of agencies and functions under the wide authority imposed in him by the reorganization bill already passed by the House and pending in the Senate.

American Communists Adhere to Russia

THE reaffirmed adherence of American communist leaders to the Moscow axis doesn't alter, but merely confirms, the party's attitude towards the U. S. government. They owe allegiance first to Russia.

There's really only one unusual thing about the statement issued on behalf of William Z. Foster, national committee chairman, and Eugene Dennis, general secretary. This is that both already are under federal charges of conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Their declaration therefore shows daring and vast determination.

Coincident with this flood of Red pledges, the Paris communist publication France Nouvelle has published a month-old speech by Thorez advising his followers what to do in case of war.

He quoted the following statement made by Lenin in 1907:

"In case war should break out, socialists have the duty of interfering to end it promptly and to take advantage with all their strength of the economic and political crises created by war to stir up as many people as possible and bring on the end of capitalist domination."

This, of course, is one of the cardinal tenets of the bolshevist creed. Wherever there is trouble, communism is to capitalize it by strong-arm methods. Obviously should Russia, mother of communism, find herself at war, the communists of all countries would be expected immediately to adopt the attitude best suited to serve Moscow's interests.

In some cases that might mean merely hewing to the party line with propaganda. In others it might involve actual sabotage and obstruction through strikes to cripple a nation. In extreme circumstances it would mean actual armed rebellion against the government.

What started this avalanche of pledges to Moscow? There are various guesses. One is that it is calculated to counter the proposed North Atlantic alliance among the western nations.

In any event it's propaganda which clearly could be directed to two ends:

1. To strike fear in the chancelleries of the western world.

2. To put the Communist parties of all countries on their toes—to prepare for contingencies.

What contingencies? Well, Moscow keeps saying the western powers, led by America, are preparing to make war. Maybe the Russians believe that, though I doubt it.

WASHINGTON.—Down in Florence, South Carolina, in the heart of the Old South, is a Western Union Negro messenger named James Jones, who has become one of the leading money-raisers for the March-of Dimes.

Jones has been raising money for the March-of-Dimes ever since the campaign was started and every year sets a higher goal for himself. His goal for 1949 was $2,000. He topped it by $500.

James Jones pedaled around the city of Florence on an old bicycle—until his friends and neighbors bought him a motorcycle the other day—peddling good-will as he goes.

He is a one-man salesman for better race relations, largely by making himself an everyday example of better brotherhood.

Partly because of the example of James Jones, partly because of other public-spirited citizens of Florence, race relations are on a kindly, neighborly basis in that city. The other day when a little Negro girl needed an eye operation, the Hi-Y Boys' club put on a campaign to raise money for the eye operation with the result that the little girl's eyesight was restored.

This is the kind of neighborliness and friendship—rather than name-calling—which makes democracy live. Therefore, James Jones, the Western Union messenger boy, and the Hi-Y Boys' club of Florence are hereby made members of the Servants Of Brotherhood.

Truman's Poker Partner.

SOUTHERN leaders have quietly passed the word to block appointment of Mon Wallgren, the President's crony, as the first act of reprisal against President Truman's stubborn stand on the filibuster and civil rights.

First hint of this came when southern Democrats joined Republicans in delaying a vote on Wallgren behind the closed doors of the Senate armed services committee.

Wallgren has been the target of bitter charges from Senator Harry Cain, Washington Republican, ever since Truman named his old crony and poker partner to head the National Security Resources Board.

When the appointment came up for a vote by the armed services committee, Senator Styles Bridges, New Hampshire Republican, demanded that a subcommittee investigate Cain's charges and prove Wallgren either innocent or guilty.

This didn't suit Chairman Millard Tydings, Maryland Democrat, who wanted an immediate vote. But he was overruled by a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats.

In acid tones, Tydings set off the fireworks with a few cutting remarks about Senator Cain.

"Senator Cain has adopted a mass of charges based on innuendoes from newspaper reports," crackled Tydings. Then he read a statement from Wallgren retorting to Cain's charges.

* * *

Wallgren's Desert Palace.

IN THE statement, Wallgren claimed he had spent $20,000 building a so-called palace in Palm Desert, Calif.—not $60,000 as reported by the Associated Press. His wife had sinus, Wallgren explained, and the doctor had ordered her to stay in a dry climate.

Wallgren also denied that his business had gone bankrupt in 1933. It had slipped into poor financial condition, he admitted, but he had managed to salvage it. He owed his present healthy bank account, he added, to wise investments.

After reading the statement, Tydings wanted to take a vote on Wallgren at once. But Bridges held up a warning hand.

"I intend to approach this question with an open mind," declared the senator from New Hampshire. "I had the pleasantest relations with Wallgren while he was in the Senate, but Senator Cain has raised some very grave questions—so grave that the armed services committee can't close its eyes without a thorough investigation."

He served notice that he would offer a resolution to authorize a subcommittee to get to the bottom of Cain's charges.

The tip-off on how the South stood was given by Virginia's Senator Harry Byrd who announced bluntly that he was "not prepared to vote" on the appointment and demanded that it be held over at least a week.

Before the meeting, Georgia's Senator Dick Russell had given the signal to sabotage the Wallgren appointment as an act of defiance against Truman's fight-to-the-finish on the filibuster.

In line with the southern bloc, Kentucky's Senator Virgil Chapman agreed to the postponement and even suggested that the full committee instead of a subcommittee investigate Wallgren.

Farm Controls Again.

INSIDE betting is that the Henry Wallace system of crop controls will be reinstated around July. There won't be any killing of little pigs, but there will be acreage allotments and marketing quotas for cotton, wheat and possibly corn in 1950. The only thing that can prevent this is adverse weather.

In other words, the United States has helped re-stock the world's food supply and is now faced with surpluses.

The decision on wheat controls will be made early in July, when the size of the 1949 crop is known.

Department economists privately estimate that the wheat crop will be large enough to leave a carry-over of at least 300,000,000 bushels for 1950, more than enough to warrant controls.

With another bumper cotton crop coming up, that crop is even more likely to be controlled in 1950, in order to bring supplies into a reasonable balance with demand. However, corn, largely consumed on the farm, may escape controls.

Note—Not since 1942 have there been acreage allotments for cotton, wheat and corn.

'Ma' Ferguson at Home

By INEZ ROBB

AUSTIN, Tex. — A dignified, whitehaired lady who looks as everyone's grandmother should look, understands—even if she cannot condone—the strong language recently used by President Truman in exasperation at a political columnist.

"Ma" Ferguson, the famous first lady of Texas politics, feels President Truman "probably had provocation." Miriam Amanda Ferguson, 74, once the storm petrel of Texas's stormy political scene, sat in the parlor of her big, comfortable Austin home and, as a former politician, did not have it in her heart to judge Mr. Truman harshly.

"I guess maybe the President shouldn't have said it," Mrs. Ferguson said judiciously, primly avoiding any mention of what he had actually said.

"I guess it doesn't sound becomin'," she added as a southern lady and a devout churchgoer. But then the bright eyes behind her rimless glasses began to snap. In 1925, she and Mrs. Nellie Taloe Ross of Wyoming became the first woman governors and as that kind of pioneer she has had her own political ordeals, and obviously was thinking of them.

Mrs. Ferguson, who was twice governor of Texas during one of its most turbulent periods, said firmly:

"I think people who've been in politics will understand why the President was so riled. Anyway, I don't think people should have made so much out of it."

Mrs. Ferguson, who hated the term "Ma" when she entered politics in 1924 and who hates it bitterly still, lives today in quiet retirement. She is still a woman of such presence and dignity that it is difficult to imagine anyone, even politicians, having the temerity to call her "Ma", a contraction first suggested by the initials of her christian names, Miriam Amanda.

* * *

Adventure In Politics.

ALTHOUGH Mrs. Ferguson will be 75 in June, she is straight as an arrow. She walks with the lithe step and swing of a girl. And she speaks and moves with the undiminished vigor of her old politicking days.

Her strong, oblong face, with its deep-set eyes, is topped by hair almost snow white, parted in the middle and neatly drawn into a figure eight at the nape of her neck. The evening I went to call, she was wearing a delft-blue shirt-maker dress of thin wool, and a handsome gold necklace.

A unique figure on the American political scene, Mrs. Ferguson is the only woman who ever ran for a governorship to vindicate the good name of her husband.

Until her late husband, Gov. James Edward (Jim) Ferguson, was impeached during his second term in office and barred from again running for state office, Mrs. Ferguson was a devoted wife and mother, and a pleasant hostess at the executive mansion.

As she sat in a handsome Victorian arm chair, in front of a grand piano, Mrs. Ferguson said smilingly:

"It nevers occurs to me to think of myself as a governor. I can't think of myself in that position."

As she talks, whenever she speaks of "the governor," she invariably means her husband, Jim, who died in 1944 after a long illness. But she conceded:

"Politics never, never get out of the blood." Then this picture of everybody's grandmother laughed and added:

"But I don't even want to get 'em out."

When I reminded her that, like it or lump it, she was a genuine footnote in history as the nation's first woman governor, Mrs. Ferguson laughed gently. She shook her head unbelievingly, but added:

"Ah guess 'h'm cornered. Ah cain't back out of that."

MANSFIELD MUSIC STUDY CLUB GIVEN PROGRAM

National Chairman Speaks to Club Members At Gibson Home Monday Evening.

"OHIO COMPOSERS" was the topic of the talk given by Miss Eunice Lea Kettering of Ashland, state and national chairman of the Federation of Music Clubs, at the meeting of the Mansfield Music Study club at the home of Mrs. E. D. Gibson, 282 West Fourth street, last evening.

In her paper, Miss Kettering traced the first music we had from the Indians down to the first musical centers in Ohio. She spoke of the importance of martial music due to the militia garrisons which were at several cities through the state.

Miss Kettering brought out the reason Cincinnati and the surrounding section is so musical. She told the members that the German immigration there has helped advance the people in this field.

"Ohio, because of its constitution, was one of the first states to have musical institutes, and was the second state in the United States to adopt music in schools for teaching. Massachusetts was the first to have it as a subject for school children," Miss Kettering explained.

The group learned that Cincinnati, Dayton and several other southern cities were flourishing towns while Cleveland was just a trading post. Cleveland, now is one of the leading national music centers.

She stated, "No longer do Americans have to go to Europe to receive musical training. They just have to come to Ohio to have the best instruction because of the high rank the schools and teachers have."

Miss Mary Eddy of Perrysville was the first person to have a really authentic collection of Ohio folk music.

Miss Kettering closed with the thought that all Ohio composers, because of 40 or more nationalities represented in the state, are probably the pulse of American music today.

During her talk, the guest speaker illustrated her subject with some of her own recordings.

Also included on the program was Mrs. Richard Wolford, Lewis Girton, Mrs. Fred Cahall, Miss Thelma Reed, Mrs. Emory Smith, Miss Louise Krause, Mrs. Robert Donnan, Miss Doris Ranck, Miss Beverly Wentz and Mrs. Fred Walter.

Harold McCune, president of the organization, conducted the business session. The members voted at this time to sponsor the string ensemble as a unit of its own next year.

It was announced that the next meeting will be April 25 at John Simpson Junior high school. There will be a dinner in the cafeteria at 6:30 o'clock with a sealed program to follow.

Mrs. William Bishop and John Grabler are the chairmen for the affair. The hostesses are Mrs. K. E. Buhr and Mrs. W. H. Marshall.

Guest Tea Held At Woman's Club

The Women's Auxiliary to the Richland County Medical society met yesterday at the Women's club for a guest tea. Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Stiles and Mrs. R. D. Campbell.

The guest speaker was R. C. Jenkins of the Akron office of Blue Cross and Blue Shield, non profit organizations for health insurance. He spoke of the origins and growth of the two organizations and mentioned a new group plan which will soon be offered to the public, with the same benefits as the other two.

He touched slightly on socialized medicine, saying it was better to have 80 per cent of the people receive good medical care than 100 per cent receive bad medical care.

There were fifty-one members and guests present. Tea was served from a table decorated with an assortment of spring flowers and long tapers.

Cream butter or margarine till it is light and fluffy, and it will go farther in buttering bread for sandwiches or toast.

March 26 Date Of Wedding For Miss Maxwell

Mrs. Leo Lembacher recently entertained guests at a kitchen shower and announcement party for her niece, Miss Mary Elaine Maxwell, at Miss Maxwell's home, 343 Bartley avenue.

A large basket, given the bride-elect by her aunt, Mrs. Mike Apple, was filled with the many gifts which the guests had brought. Tea towels were hemmed during the evening for the honoree.

At a late hour a buffet lunch was served and the wedding date was revealed. Miss Maxwell will exchange vows with Eugene Luedy, son of Mrs. John Schmidt, Remy avenue on March 26. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Carveth Mitchell at 8:30 p. m. in the First Lutheran church. Open church will be observed.

The buffet table was beautifully decorated with a large floral centerpiece from which pastel colored ribbons hung. Each guest pulled a ribbon. The one telling the date of the wedding was tied to a rose.

Mrs. Richard Spayde of Shiloh, who will be matron of honor at the wedding, will fete Miss Maxwell with a linen shower, March 11. The bride-elect has chosen as her other attendant her future sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Stainbrook.

Mrs. Henry Leatherman had charge of devotions, using First Corinthians, chapter 11, as the subject. She also read an article, entitled, "Women in the Home."

The speakers for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Stambaugh of Mansfield. They are missionaries, preparing to leave soon for Kentucky, to do mission work.

In their talks they gave a vivid word picture of the work, the people and the conditions existing in the section of the state in which they will be located.

The collection taken amounted to $25 and was given to Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Stambaugh.

Betty Jean Scott to Become Bride of Richard Roller

THE FIRST IN A SERIES of pre-nuptial showers for Miss Betty Jean Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Scott, R. D. 4, and bride-elect of Richard Roller, was held at the home of Miss Scott's aunt, Mrs. Clarence Cotsamire, 700 Hopley avenue, Bucyrus.

Games were the diversion of the evening for the miscellaneous shower. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. James Hall of Marion. They presented the awards to Miss Scott.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening at a table decorated with a yellow and blue color scheme. A lovely floral arrangement of spring flowers centered the table which was appointed in the bride's colors.

Guests in attendance at the party were from Mansfield, Bucyrus, and Marion, Ohio.

The honoree will be wed to Mr. Roller March 26 at 3:30 in an open church service in the First Church of God with the Rev. S. C. Johnson officiating.

Miss Scott has chosen Miss Joyce Scott, her sister, to serve as maid of honor. Mrs. Dean Schuler, friend, will be her bridesmaid. Mr. Roller's attendants will be Dean Schuler, best man. Carl Scott, brother of the bride-elect, and Donald Hall, Miss Scott's cousin, will escort the guests to their pews.

The next in the series of parties will given by the bride-elect aunts, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Franklin Frasch, Mrs. Steven Katona and Mrs. Ernest W. Yoakam. The affair will be held at the Yoakam home, 59 East Raleigh avenue, March 11. Saturday evening, March 12, she will be entertained by her Sunday school class at the church parsonage.

50th Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

One hundred and fifty friends and relatives called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Day, 545 West Fourth street, in celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon and evening.

The honored couple's daughters, Mrs. E. W. Arbaugh of Lorain, and Mrs. P. S. Hagerman of San Marino, Calif., were assisted with the affair during the day by Miss Celia Brumbach, Miss Louise Montgomery, and Miss Louise Lynch.

Many floral arrangements of spring flowers, roses and carnations carried out the golden theme.

The serving table, presided over by Mrs. W. L. Gross and Mrs. Edward Graham, was beautiful with lighted candles and a white floral arch under which stood two miniature brides. One represented a modern bride in white satin and veil, the other a bride of 1899 in gray satin. The latter bride wore an exact replica of Mrs. Day's wedding dress. Each carried a tiny bridal bouquet of roses.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE
For Wednesday, March 9

IT is quite possible that certain astute tactics, determination and diligence applied to important plans and progress seemingly suffering a stubborn impasse may bring desired action. Not only personal shrewdness and acumen furnish the spurt to static or congested situations, but such may arrest the attention of those close in interest, ambition and perhaps affection. While matters at issue are practical and promising, yet the element of sentiment, romance or pleasure may give a decided boost to the lagging or frustrated condition. Reward of merit brings joy.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may encounter a year of security, sustained action and splendid rewards for endurance, diligence and earnest efforts in a difficult or hopeless situation. The happy combination of good sense, sterling worth with a notable sense of obligation or duty should enlist support from friendly even affectionate sources, with encouragement for hearty celebration.

A child born on this day is well endowed for a sound and constructive role in life, as well as finding joy and friendly support for its sterling efforts and qualities.

SURPRISE ICE CREAM SAUCE: Got a little mincemeat left over? Mix it with from ½ to ¾ cupful of warm, tart lemon sauce and serve over vanilla ice cream. With a quart or more of bulk ice cream stored away in the freezing compartment of the refrigertor or in the home freezer, you're always prepared for emergencies!

EGGS BAKED IN CREAM are fine for a leisurely Sunday breakfast. Pour ½ cup light cream into a shallow baking dish, break in 4 or 6 eggs, sprinkle them with salt, pepper and ½ cup buttered breadcrumbs. Bake in a moderate oven until the eggs are firm, or for about 10 minutes.

Seek Postal Rate Boost

WASHINGTON —(AP)— An administration bill to boost postal rates $253,275,000 a year, mostly on newspapers, advertising matter and parcel post, started through Congress Monday.

Chairman Tom Murray (D-Tenn.) of the House Postoffice committee yesterday gave the signal for perhaps a month of hearings.

Before the committee is a bill that, among other things, would raise the rate on postcards from a penny to two cents, collect $39,000,000 more a year on parcel post packages, $75,000,000 additional from newspapers and $65,000,000 from third class mail — things like circulars.

The postoffice department is running in the red something like $526,000,000 this year and an estimated $400,000,000 next year.

Something has to be done, Murray told a reporter, to make up the deficit.

Blames U. S. Aid

NANKING —(AP)— The Catholic newspaper, Yi Shih Pao, today blames American aid for prolonging the Chinese civil war.

The newspaper, which is controlled by Archbishop Paul Yupin, called for an immediate end of U. S. aid to the nationalists. The archbishop is on an extended visit to the United States.
